VOL. 44, NO. 13

Around the Square

Fred G. Scalzo this week donated a big hunk of his Sierra Madre boulevard real estate to the city, and Councilman Henry Nuetzel is very happy about it.

The real estate is going to be hoisted by skip-loader into trucks and hauled to "Nuetzel Park" (the baseball diamond-to-be).

Nuetzel said that Scalzo was donating the 3000 yards of dirt from the new business block site west of Marshall's Nursery. Scalzo will also haul half of the dirt to the proposed baseball diamond site for free.

Nuetzel said that the balance of the dirt will be excavated later with local truckers donating their time for the civic project.

The ball park, which is expected to be in operation by spring, will be developed by money to be raised by the local VFW at a dance Feb. 25.

Loomis and Cahill are very mum about whether their big project (west of their real estate office on Sierra Madre boulevard across from the Square) is a signboard or not. It looks like a signboard that's facing the wrong way.

Young Pete Ward has a guinea pig that he's trying to board out to friends. Call him at CUster 5-4624 if you want to borrow it for a week.

The County Regional Planning Commission now estimates Sierra Madre's population at 7414. A year ago the estimate was 7202.

We can check up on 'em this year after the Federal census is completed.

There are now 2571 homes in the city, according to the survey. There were 1767 dwelling units in town in 1940.

The Edison Company has finally announced that it is getting around to make a survey of the street lighting situation in town.

They say it'll take a month. That makes us stop and think. Surveys have a habit of costing a lot of money in one way or another.

The States Public Utilities Commission is expected to hand down its decision on the Pacific Electric petition for abandonment of rail lines within a month.

And it's dollars to donuts that the S.M. Big Red Cars will go. Even the bus line, all the financial experts agreed, will lose money up here.

The city has had more than 12 inches of rain so far this season—and that's good news.

Chairman Renews Appeal
For March of Dime Aid

A renewed appeal for the local March of Dimes fund was expressed yesterday by Chairman Mrs. Leo Meyer, who said Sierra Madreans are "falling way behind" in carrying their share of the burden.

She said support of the drive is lacking among altogether too many local citizens and groups.

"Our quota of $2500 may as well be considered $25,000," Mrs. Meyer declared. "We are still miles from reaching it."

The Civic Club March of Dimes chairman disclosed that the campaign has been extended an additional week—this time to Feb. 28—in a frantic attempt to make the goal.

As of yesterday morning, she said only $1530 had been received in Sierra Madre. This total includes money contrib-

Morgan Will Head
Red Cross Drive

Al E. Morgan will head the Sierra Madre 1950 Red Cross Fund Campaign, it was announced Monday by local ARC Chairman R. C. Lewis.

Mr. Morgan will lead the city in its efforts to reach the 1950 local quota of $5200. The drive will begin March 1.

In accepting the appointment as Fund Campaign Chairman, Mr. Morgan pointed out some of the programs that have been conducted by the Red Cross in Sierra Madre during the past year.

"Much good was accomplished in 1949 through the Red Cross in our local water safety program, First Aid classes, blood program, and services rendered to veterans and to the military," Mr. Morgan stated.

"Should a major disaster strike this city," he continued, "not only would the local chapter stand ready, but through the Red Cross, help would pour in from other sections of the nation."

Mr. Morgan cited instances of last year when contributions from all over the country have made possible Red Cross aid to victims of hurricanes in Florida, floods in Texas, and freezing blizzards throughout the north and midwest.

"Sixty-nine per cent, or $3587, of the 1950 local Campaign Fund goal is for local use," he explained, "and 31 per cent, or $1613, will go toward the national quota."

Flood Control
Fence Damaged

Damage to two wire fences enclosing the banks of the Los Angeles County Flood Control Wash in the Sierra Madre Canyon was considered the work of teenage vandals Sunday.

Police say three or four sections of the wire fence—just west of the point where the wash passes under the Camillo Bridge—were badly bent by a hard object, possibly a hand-hatchet. Investigating Officer Stanley Fish said, however, that the wires were not severed.

Arcadia OK's
Reopening of Quarter-Way

Showing a firm willingness to cooperate with Sierra Madre in solving this city's water problems, the Arcadia City Council this week said that it had no objections to the reopening of "Quarter-way."

Quarter-way is a tunnel water outlet in the mountains from which water was piped to the city reservoirs. It has been out of service for many years. Approximately 100 acre-feet a year can be obtained from this source.

The Arcadia Council adopted a resolution on motion of Councilman Peter A. Klomp which said that Arcadia would have no objections to Sierra Madre conducting a survey of this water pipeline to determine the advisability of reopening the line.

The City Council expressed the hope that Sierra Madre and Arcadia could get together on determining use of the tunnel water.

Although still listed as "critically ill," Little Susan Prosser this week was reported past the crisis in her case of cerebrospinal meningitis.

Check Peddlers' License Chief McMillan Warns Residents were advised this week to be wary of door-to-door solicitors until they have shown they have permission to peddle goods within the city.

Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan said citizens should ask to see city licenses of persons soliciting sales of merchandise, photographs, or magazines.

If a person feels uneasy about demanding a peddler's license, however, he is requested to ask Sierra Madre police if that particular salesman is or is not legally licensed.

"Some solicitors canvass the city without proper identification and drive unmarked automobiles. For that reason, it is often difficult to separate the 'wheat from the chaff,'" Mr. McMillan explained.

POINTING THE WAY to how Boy Scouts can "Strengthen Liberty" are two typical Boy Scouts. Being honored in every state and city of the nation this week, Feb. 6 to 12, the Boy Scouts of America is celebrating its 40th anniversary. More than 2,300,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and their adult leaders are taking part in the week-long celebration. Numerous events in Sierra Madre have been dedicated to local Scouts during the birthday observance.

NURSE SERVICE IS RESUMED HERE

Services of the Visiting Nurses were resumed in Sierra Madre Monday afternoon at 2:30.

At that time, R. C. Lewis, chairman of the Visiting Nurse Re-instatement Committee formed last week, informed Pasadena officials of the service that sufficient money had been collected to underwrite its immediate return to this city.

Mr. Lewis said substantial amounts have been offered by a very few persons and organizations—only enough to guarantee the service for a period of 90 days.

He indicated that a campaign is being waged to obtain the remainder of the required money. In November, it is hoped that the Youth Fund Drive will include its financing in some form of community Turn to Page four

Founders Day

Founders Day will be observed by the Sierra Madre Chapter of P.T.A. next Thursday, Feb. 16, with a potluck luncheon in the school cafeteria.

The annual life membership award will be made during the program, which will feature music by the students. No business meeting has been planned. The art exhibit from the various rooms will be on display.

Playground supervision for all children has been arranged, according to Publicity Chairman Mrs. J. K. Kingsbury. The mothers of the fourth and fifth grades are to be hostesses of the day.

Scouts Feted In Window Exhibits

Boy Scouts of America are being saluted this week in window displays of two Sierra Madre business establishments.

Commemorating Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, the displays show handicraft exhibits and periodicals of two local Scouting units.

In the Sierra Madre Hardware Company's window, charts for Troop 1 dating as far back as 1926 are shown. The charter issued in 1926 lists Arthur Evans as Scoutmaster and these three troop committeemen: Harvey Steinberger, Harold Roberts, and Victor Hull.

Handbooks and examples of knot tying have been placed in the window.

At Harry Lange's Real Estate agency, hobby crafts of Cub Pack 1, Den 1 are displayed. Decorated coat hangers, mounted butterflies, stone hatchets, and gaily-painted shields adorn the window.

Heavy Rainstorm
Clogs City Drains

Pouring down at an alarming rate, Monday morning rains left city employees with more than normal storm clean-up work to perform, according to Vernon Udell, acting street and water superintendent.

Mr. Udell said an "unusually heavy" rainfall of 1.68 inches in only five hours left storm drains and gutters badly clogged with debris. City workmen spent most of Monday clearing the stopped-up passages.

First Aid
Class Begins
Wednesday

First session of the Sierra Madre Red Cross Chapter's First Aid class will be conducted Wednesday evening, Feb. 15, from 7:30 to 9:30 at the City Hall.

Harry Lange, local First Aid chairman, said the 10-week course will be instructed by Dr. Thomas A. Wynne, 71 N. Baldwin.

Directed principally at members of the City Police and Fire Departments, the course has already enrolled a near-capacity student body. Mr. Lange indicated, however, there are still openings for four local men in the class. Persons interested in receiving the First Aid training should contact him.

"Although the current class is open to men only, we plan another course—just for women—which will start up on the completion of this class," Mr. Lange said.

Local Coordinating Council Studies Young Peoples' Program

YOUTHS TELL 'RECREATION ILLS

Sierra Madre youth—at least 11 representatives of varying age-groups—Tuesday night "let their hair down" and told the Coordinating Council what is good and what is bad about the city's recreation program.

The Coordinating Council, as its President John Conzelman put it, is attempting to find out what the youth and adults of Sierra Madre can do in a cooperative way toward the improvement of existing recreation facilities.

And after finding what is needed and what would be supported by both old and young, the Council proposes to inaugurate appropriate steps toward its adoption.

Principal point brought out by youth representatives was that young people past adolescence must seek recreation out of town—that Sierra Madre does not offer any meeting place or activities for persons in the late teens and early twenties.

The Youth Hut, it was charged, does not meet this need because only organized groups can use it. Individuals or informal groups can not feel that the Hut is a "real meeting place" for them.

The young people, and most of the adults present joined them, expressed "keen disappointment" concerning the recent defeat of a new swimming pool for Sierra Madre, when only 29 per cent of the voters registered an opinion.

Arvid Pauly, recreation specialist of the State Recreation Commission, advised the pool-backers to try again. He cited the northern city of Shafter as an example where persistence and organized efforts finally resulted in a new swimming pool.

During a 'round-the-room informal exchange of ideas, Elsie Seifert suggested that there are not sufficient tennis courts, and that the present recreation set-up is not broad enough for all ages.

She said the pool should be brought down to the center of town, and that a miniature golf course would provide a "constructive outlet" for youth right here in Sierra Madre.

ARC Man Reports Seeing Local Sweaters at Dachau

First-hand assurance that sweaters knitted by Sierra Madreans during the war went to good use was given last week by Harry D. Pires, former Civilian War Relief worker for the American Red Cross.

Mr. Pires, 2401 Effie street, Los Angeles, reports that he saw the locally-knitted items of clothing—bearing Sierra Madre labels—being unloaded for distribution at Dachau, Germany's notorious concentration camp.

He spent nine weeks at the prison camp, where so many civilian and military prisoners were slaughtered in crematoriums during the closing phases of World War II.

The camp was liberated on April 30, 1945, and Mr. Pires arrived there with other Red Cross workers on May 2.

"You could smell the stench of decaying and cremated bodies while a mile away from the place," Mr. Pires relates.

Dachau concentration camp had been used as a storehouse for SS troops, and prisoners were forced to work in various industries of the camp to aid the German war effort.

"During the first few weeks we were there, prisoners continued to die at the fantastic rate of about 225 a day," he said.

The prison had quartered approximately 32,000 prisoners during its peak, nearly 50 per cent of these being the so-called "political" prisoners.

Mr. Pires helped organize displaced person camps during the war, rounding up refugees as they fled behind the American armies' advance.

The Red Cross men obtained food and medical supplies for DPs and created work for them. With headquarters at Paris, the Civilian War Relief workers operated directly to the rear of U. S. military personnel as they advanced through Germany.

GROUND BROKEN FOR ALTADENA TRAIL SYSTEM

Ground-breaking for the Altadena Link of the Los Angeles County-wide system of riding and hiking trails took place 11 a. m. yesterday with county, city, and state officials attending.

The start of construction of the trail along the foothills through Altadena will connect the mountain trails now open at the Arroyo Seco on the West and Sierra Madre to the East.

The groundbreaking Wednesday, which was also attended by representatives of many riding and hiking groups, was in the nature of a "golden spike" event since it connected a gap in the statewide system.

William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of the Angeles National Forest, was present from the Sierra Madre area.

School Boys Compete In Grid Skills

A post-season Football Skills Program was completed recently for sixth grade boys at the Sierra Madre City School.

Philip Mitchell, sixth-grade teacher and coach, reports that approximately 25 boys participated in the competition, with several high scores being recorded.

Punting, passing, and drop kicking for distance comprised the first part of the schedule; and a passing, centering, and catching of the ball for control and form completed the contest.

Mr. Mitchell reported a two-way tie for the first place honors in drop kicking. Richard Lees and Tom Flenniken dropped the pigskin 78 feet, 7 inches.

John Douglas won the punting contest with a boot of 79 feet, 2 inches.

A 90 foot, 10 inch toss won the passing competition for Richard Lees.

Rated "excellent" in passing, catching, and centering, Bob Ohs was described as having the best form and control in these divisions. He recorded a perfect score.

Registration Reopens For Public Accountants

The 1949 session of the California Legislature adopted, and the government signed, Assembly Bills 341 and 2905. These bills reopen registration for a public accountant's permit to all persons who, on September 15, 1945, met the requirements of Section 5082 of the California Accountancy Act, and to veterans who meet the requirements by March 15, 1951.

All persons interested in obtaining a license to practice public accountancy should contact the office of the board at 26 Taylor street, Room 626, San Francisco 2. All applications, including veterans' applications, must be received in the office of the board prior to March 15, 1950.

Rose Parade Seeks Theme

Theme suggestions for the 62nd Annual Tournament of Roses to be held New Year's Day, 1951, are now being accepted by the Tournament Association, L. Clifford Kenworthy, president, announced this week.

To the persons suggesting the winning theme, the Tournament will award two review-stand seats for the parade, two luncheon, and two tickets to name's distinguished guests luncheon, and two tickets to the Rose Bowl game.

Suggestions should be mailed to the Tournament of Roses Theme Committee, 164 N. Euclid avenue, Pasadena 1, not later than March 5. Mr. Kenworthy said. In the event the winning theme is suggested by more than one person, the suggestion bearing the earlier postmark will be chosen. The 1950 theme was "Our American Heritage."

Public Lauds Pianist at City Concert

Brazilian Pianist Yara Bernette thrilled several hundred concert-goers last Thursday evening at Sierra Madre's 2nd Community Concert Association performance, held at the City School auditorium.

In the audience were approximately 300 local association members and members from near-by cities; on the stage was a glamorous concert pianist whose fame is rapidly spreading throughout the Western hemisphere—South America, the United States and Canada.

Included among her keyboard offerings were three numbers of Frederic Chopin—Nocturne in C Minor, Mazurka in A Minor, and Etude in A Minor, Opus 25, No. 11.

The program opened with two numbers by Spanish composers, Miss Bernette rendered "Presto e Gaio in D Minor," Mateo Albeniz, and Allegro in D Major, by Padre Soler.

Miss Bernette's next selection was Sonata in E, Flat Major, Opus 31, No. 3, by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Following the three Chopin pieces and an intermission, Miss Bernette returned to the platform to present two preludes of Sergei Rachmaninoff: G Major and G Minor.

Also presented during the evening were "Corobax," Isaac Albeniz; "Reflets dans L'eau," Claude Debussy; and two compositions by Heiter de Villa-Lobos—"Twilight in the Back Country," and "Dance of the White Indian."

Spelbound Sierra Madreans and out-of-town guests called Miss Bernette back for three encores.

Ullman Announces Several Guard Company Promotions

Several promotions in the Sierra Madre Heavy Mortar Company were announced this week by Captain Sanford M. Ullman, commanding officer.

Highest non-commissioned officer to step up a grade is Carl W. Cullum, who moves from sergeant to sergeant first class. These three men are elevated to sergeant, according to Captain Ullman: Ralph E. Gossweiler, Earl W. LaLone, and Luigi Mariotti.

Promoted from private to private first class are Joseph A. Brito, James R. Cole, Thurston McWorter, William N. Spargur, and Richard H. Witter.

Designated privates are the following former recruits: W. L. Blucker, R. D. Boyd, J. E. Ferguson, Charles W. Harris, Donald A. Hedwall, Richard H. Nickel, John I. McCort, and Louis G. Williamson.

Captain Ullman stated that two openings exist for new enlistees in the local National Guard Company. He said men interested in joining the Guard should contact him at the City Hall basement headquarters.

He indicated that the Company lost one man during the last week. Joseph A. Brito was discharged from the Guard to go on active duty with the U. S. Air Force.

A mess hall is being maintained by the Guard now, officiated over by Mess Steward Carl Cullum. Using a regular army field stove, the local Guardsmen prepare refreshments to be eaten after the drill.

At present, the refreshments are served only every other week, the men of the Company chipping in money for the food. Sgt. Cullum reported that next week's fare will include hot dogs, coffee, and cocoa. This new phase of the local military training began two weeks ago.

New Store Owners

Hail from Bay City

Sierra Madre may now boast two former Bay Area residents among its businessfolk in the new owners of Marjorie Janes Baby Shop, 34 N. Baldwin Avenue.

Mrs. Violet C. Felton hails from San Jose, where she was in business for several years, and Vestal Hall, the other half of the business partnership, is a former salesman of San Francisco.

The new owners took over possession of the youngsters' store last Wednesday, Feb. 1. Mr. Hall, a former Army lieutenant with participation in five major European campaigns noted in his service record, plans to build a boys' department in the store, and will also be in charge of children's shoes and furniture.

Mrs. Felton, who has two daughters, Phyllis, 22, and Judy, 10, will take care of small girls' and infant apparel.

Club Hears Arvid Pauly

Members and guests at Monday's monthly meeting of the Sierra Madre Friendship Club heard as guest speaker, Arvid O. Pauly, recreation specialist for the State Recreation Commission.

Mrs. Alice Sedgman, club president, said the meeting was well attended, and that Mr. Pauly spoke ably on the subject, "Recreation for All the People."

Mr. Pauly for the past 13 years has been an administrator and instructor in the fields of physical education and recreation. He is a former president of the California Recreation Executives' Association.

Singing following the formal part of the meeting was led by Mrs. J. E. Leguin. Tea was served.

Girl Injured In Collision

A 6½-year-old girl was slightly injured Monday morning in a minor traffic accident at the intersection of Highland and Lima avenue.

The girl, Yvonne Stoyanchul, 540 W. Laurel, was thrown against the dashboard of her father's car and suffered a small lip cut. She was treated by the City School nurse.

Milo Stoyanchul, the child's father, was driving his daughter to school when the accident occurred. His car received a damaged left-rear fender. The other vehicle, going south on Lima, was driven by John W. Adams, Master of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. & A. M., who lives at 623 Woodland Drive. A dented-in front was reported by Mr. Adams as the damage to his automobile.

Both motorists told police they were driving at moderate speeds and did not see each other until it was too late. No citations were issued.

Hillcrest Notes

28th Milestone

Another milestone has been reached in the life of Hillcrest Restaurant and Dairy Products Company, 3570 E. Foothill, Pasadena. The month of February marks the 28th birthday of the enterprise.

Much change may be noticed in the plant since 1922 when Mr. and Mrs. Ray Summers, owners, started out with only a roadside stand in the same location.

Today, extended service facilities include a dining room set in a provincial motif, the recently-enlarged coffee shop, an unusual kitchen arrangement, and a huge dairy products home delivery service.

Hillcrest owners estimate that more than 2,000,000 guests have been served in the dining room during the last 11 years.

O-KI-ZU CAMPFIRE

GIRLS ENTERTAIN

O-Ki-Zu Campfire Girls entertained mothers and leaders at a St. Valentine's Tea last Wednesday at the home of their guardian, Mrs. John Rudbach, 272 E. Highland.

Decorations, cookies, candies, and cakes were all made by girls of the O-Ki-Zu unit. The tea table was decorated with a Valentine tree—a white-painted limb of wistaria with small red hearts hanging from the branches.

Guests included Mrs. Al Batterson, Mrs. Florence Wood, Mrs. C. L. Young, Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. A. Blumenstock, Mrs. Ray Perry, Mrs. Ervin Podliska, Mrs. B. McDonald, Mrs. Paul Carter, and Mrs. Ed Cook.

Nation Hears Of Scalzo's Nude Canary

By STAN CANN

"Bubbles" fame is spreading. The featherless canary, owned by Joe Scalzo's Pet Supplies Shop, and its unfortunate condition have been publicized in newspapers as far east as Albany, New York.

The tale of how "Bubbles" received several knitted sweaters to conceal her nudity was eagerly snatched up by wire services and transmitted to papers throughout the country. Mr. Scalzo reported that a woman in Albany mailed him a clipping of the article that appeared in the Albany Times Union. She enclosed a letter offering dietary advice on how best to cure the ailing bird.

A clipping also was received by Mr. Scalzo from the Telegraph-Herald of Dubuque, Iowa.

Thus the real-life story of "Bubbles," which first appeared in the Sierra Madre NEWS, is becoming nationally known. Incidentally, "Bubbles" condition is reported "considerably improved" by Owner Scalzo, who says feathers finally are beginning to blossom on formerly bare portions of the canary's body.

He attributes the cure to proper dieting.

local VFW and Boy Scout Troop 4.

Henry Nuetzel, City Councilman and past commander of the post, this week urged all organizations and clubs in Sierra Madre to give their "whole-hearted support to this worthwhile project."

Concerning the dance, Mr. Nuetzel said music would be provided by Herb Adkins, his 8-piece band, and a vocalist. In keeping with the patriotic theme for the informal dance, decorations will be red, white, and blue.

"None of the money received from the dance goes to the VFW," Mr. Nuetzel emphasized in seeking community support. "The local VFW is only the promotional agency for the dance, to see that the project is carried out and to guarantee that our youth do receive now an adequate and sorely needed ball diamond."

Dance Chairman Carl Cullum Monday announced the following committees for the event: James Heasley Jr., refreshments; Richard Eyre, Lawrence Brain, Richard Cameron, Eugene Colbert, and ladies of the Auxiliary, decorations; and Henry Nuetzel, promotion and advertising.

Troop Four Competes for Camp Trip

Boy Scouts of Sierra Madre Troop 4 this week began competition to determine which member of their unit will receive the expense-paid trip to summer camp at Catalina Island.

Troop 4 Scouts, sponsored by local Post 3208, Veterans of Foreign Wars, currently are engaged in a contest to decide who the winning Scout will be. The contest, based on a point system totaling 100 points, will be divided into five separate phases.

First phase of the competition is the sale of tickets for the VFW Washington's Birthday Dance, which will help finance development of Sierra Madre's baseball field.

According to Henry Nuetzel, City Councilman and VFW Dance chairman, three prizes will be awarded in each division of the contest as follows: 20 points for first prize, 15 points for second prize, and 10 points for third prize.

"In this manner," Mr. Nuetzel said, "a Scout who obtains a score of three thirds and two firsts would win over one making three firsts, one second, and one unplaced entry."

Mr. Nuetzel indicated that an additional short run-off contest would be conducted in the event of a tie for first place.

Names and details of future phases of the contest will be announced as each section begins, thereby assuring every boy the same chances for success, he said.

YOUTHS TELL

Bruce Archibald praised the present use of the Congregational Church's basketball courts, but said the city's tennis courts are "over-crowded."

Paul Caron said informal groups could register parties with Youth Hut officials and hold them there. Three teenage girls pointed out however, that without public transportation, the Youth Hut is "a long walk" for many people.

Juanita Annas condemned what she called a lack of unified community spirit in supporting programs and activities.

The return of an "old tin barn" for all types of recreation was advocated by James Cole. He said such a youth center would offer boxing, shuffleboard and craft work for Sierra Madreans.

Eugene Colbert urged public support of the VFW-sponsored Washington's Birthday Dance which will help finance a city baseball diamond. He suggested that a bowling alley, sponsored by the VFW, would cure many of the recreational ills.

Recreation Director Sam McElfresh pointed out that Sierra Madre is not "asleep at the switch" in the recreation field. He outlined activities throughout the year, including the Summer Day Camp, teen-age dances, and youth nights every Monday and Wednesday at the Parkhouse.

Concerning the Youth Hut, Mr. McElfresh explained: "If the need is there, the Youth Hut and grounds are available to individuals."

He indicated that the Recreation Commission was grateful for the suggestions and, if possible, would try to carry them out.

Mrs. Grace Vane said the baseball diamond should be encouraged by all groups. By charging for baseball games, youth groups could raise enough money to finance other projects.

She said a baseball "dugout" could be built like a stage, and, with grandstand seats, night shows could also be presented.

Mr. Colbert declared that Sierra Madre must not consider itself a "retired town" but should learn to seek progress. Youth activities he said, should be encouraged, not discouraged by taxpayers.

Moderator for the evening was John Wilhite, instructor at MAD High School and a resident of the Sierra Madre Canyon.

President Conzelman said the Coordinating Council would continue to "chip away" at the city's recreation problem and decide on a definite project.

DR. FULLER WILL ADDRESS EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE

One of America's best-known religious radio voices, Dr. Charles E. Fuller of South Pasadena, whose Old Fashioned Revival Hour is being broadcast for its 25th year, will be heard Easter morning, April 9, at the Rose Bowl Easter Sunrise Service.

The interdenominational service, sponsored by the Pasadena Christian Business Men's Committee, is expected to draw worshippers before daybreak from several score cities and towns of Southern California.

Basic Scout Course Ends

Monday night's session concluded the basic training course for Scouters in this area, according to R. W. Lees, District Scout Committeeman.

He disclosed that 16 persons will receive cards showing completion of the course, these men having attended all five sessions of the class.

Seven men missed one or more evenings, Mr. Lees said. They can make up the lacking meetings by attending the University of Scouting course, to be announced in the near future.

In addition, Mr. Lees pointed out that all local Scouters who took the course must take part in the overnight camping trip at Camp Huntington, scheduled for March 18 and 19, to receive Basic Scouters certificates.

chest fund. Besides Chairman Lewis, the Visiting Nurse Reinstatement Committee includes Felix Gibian, Carl Hansen, Mrs. May de Wright, and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

The group was formed as a result of a board meeting of the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council, held Monday, Jan. 30. Mr. Lewis said the Visiting Nurse service is now available to everyone in Sierra Madre. Persons needing the service should call the Pasadena Association's office, or, if more convenient, contact the local American Red Cross chapter office.

"Each visit of the nurse costs approximately $2.75," he explained. "If the patient can afford it, he is expected to pay the full amount."

"However, if a person can pay only a portion of the cost, or none at all, the service is paid in part or completely by our Visiting Nurse Fund. We must guarantee the VNA that we will meet the unpaid amount, which we have—for a period of 90 days," Mr. Lewis stated.

The Visiting Nurse Service was discontinued last year for lack of a sponsoring body.

Kiwanis Club Gets Review Of Scouting

The Scouting program in Sierra Madre was outlined at the regular meeting of the local Kiwanis Club.

Growth of the various phases of Scout work in the United States and in this city was traced by two speakers, District Commissioner R. G. Barrett and Skipper B. Robinson.

Commissioner Barrett, after introducing eight boys representing every Scouting group in Sierra Madre, told Kiwanians that the local program has more than doubled in the last year.

"And if it were not for the Kiwanis Club, this would not have been possible," he said. The Scout executive lauded Kiwanis support of Scout functions and sponsorship of Explorer Post 108.

Skipper Robinson presented a brief historical sketch of Scouting in this country, stating that Boy Scouts of America was the second organization to receive a Congressional Charter, which was granted in 1916. (The first group to get one was the American Red Cross.)

"Scouting has become organized in most nations, excepting those dominated by Communism," Mr. Robinson said. "One of the first decrees issued, however, when Fascists of Italy and Nazis of Germany came into power was the abolition of Scouting."

He praised the lack of commercialism in Scouting, saying that the organization could have grown even more rapidly if its leaders had not insisted on keeping it free of commercial schemes.

Chairman for the day was Al Foxton, boys and girls committee chairman.

During the business phase of the meeting, President Jim Spencer presented a past president's pin to Dr. Earl Gossard, 1949 president.

Announcement was made that at the last meeting of the board of directors, the resignation of Don Jackson from the board was received and regrettably accepted. A nomination of the board that Dr. Thomas Wynne be elected to fill the spot left vacant was approved by the club membership.

City Councilman Henry Nuetzel, club guest, made an appeal for help on the proposed city baseball field. He reminded them of the Washington's Birthday Dance, sponsored by the local VFW Post, which will help finance the project.

Visiting Kiwanian at the Tuesday meeting was Clifford Hill of the Arcadia club. Mr. Hill's guest was Bill Lindsley.

Episcopalians Plan Huge D. P. Project

The National Council of Protestant Episcopal Churches is making rapid progress on its project which will permit the resettlement in the United States of 1200 Displaced Persons, individuals or families, from Europe.

Announcement was made this week from the New York Episcopal Church office that the project will include the distribution of materials which will help sponsors in helping DP's after they arrive.

Proper steps in orienting and welcoming DP's will be outlined in a near-future edition of Churchways, national church magazine.

was rushed to the Los Angeles County General Hospital Jan. 26 after she was stricken and left near death by the dread disease.

The child's mother credited Sierra Madre Police Officers Ralph Twedell and Daniel Rauscher with saving the girl's life. They drove the dying baby to the hospital in a grim race against death, getting Susan to the receiving room and under treatment within a mere 18 to 20 minutes.

Mrs. Prosser said Susan was declared past the "crisis" on Wednesday morning. She will remain under treatment at the hospital for five additional weeks, however, Mrs. Prosser said.

U. S. Honors Boy Scouts

Boy Scouts of America is dedicated to enriching the nation by helping its boys and young men to grow physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually, says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of BSA, in this message to the nation on the occasion of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12:

"The Boy Scouts of America is observing its 40th anniversary. From a small start in 1910, the movement has grown steadily in numbers and influence so that today, Scouting is organized in every part of our great country."

"More than 16,500,000 registered members have been identified with the movement since it was incorporated in Washington, D. C., in 1910. Simply stated, the BSA is dedicated to the purpose of enriching the nation by helping its boys and young men grow physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually so that our heritage of freedom will be strengthened in the citizens of tomorrow."

"The Boy Scout movement is flourishing in America because it enjoys the good will of all citizens. We deeply appreciate this confidence. We hope we shall always merit it."

New Books At Library

BY ISABEL STRADLEY
GENTIAN HILL, by Elizabeth Goudge, is an exceptionally beautiful story. It is almost a folk tale written in the spirit of far away and long ago. The characters, however, are real enough, so, too, is the lovely Devon country of England.

The tale is set in the time of conflict between England and France. Devon is prepared for invasion, as they were to be a century and a half later, in World War II.

There is not much of war, however, in this story of the small English harbor town of Torquay. It is rich in legend, in love, and the magic of the beautiful.

GENTIAN HILL weaves a loom of many lives. There is the exquisite Stella, the young midshipman Anthony, the Abbe de Colbert, Dr. Crane, the gentle, simple Spriggs.

In a flashback we see the intolerant prison conditions of the time, the uncontrollable fury of the French Revolution. But mostly it is a book about the West Country of England, a small, enhanced corner of land that is a mixture of both old and new.

We are delighted with the charm of the lovely thatched cottages, the unhurried, singing plowmen, the peace of the rolling farm lands. This is a region steeped in ancient lore and legend, and it lends itself perfectly to the distinguished flowing quality of Miss Goudge's writing.

Other books on the library shelves are:

NON-FICTION: Bankok Editor, MacDonald; Vital Center, Schlesinger; My Three Years in Moscow, Smith; Modern Arms and Free Men, Bush; Conquest of Space, Ley; Flower Craft, Roberts; Concrete Block Houses, Ward; From Cave Painting to Comic Strip, Hogben; How to Make Braided Rugs, Alpetter; Complete Canasta, Jacoby; Best Sport Stories 1949, Marsh; Three Plays, Saroyan; Burns Mantle Best Plays of 1948-49; Your Amiable Uncle, Tarkington; Philosophy of Civilization, Schweitzer; Peabody Sisters of Salem, Tharp; Backwoods Teacher, Nelson; California, the Great Exception, McWilliams; Popcorn on the Ginza, Crockett.

FICTION: Swiftwater, Annixter; Non-Scheduled Flight, Duffus; The Parasites, DuMaurier; Gentian Hill, Goudge; Loving, Green; Frances, Hubbell; Manana Man, McCain; Gypsy Sixpence, Marshall; Show Must Go On, Rice; King's Cavalier, Shellabarger; Seven Out of Time, Zagat; Mystery Stories by Dickson and Innes.

The Colligan family has several events of interest this week: Mrs. Rebecca Colligan has recently returned from a five-week trip to Mexico and Guatemala. Her son, John Colligan, a history student at USC, returned last week from a three-week Mexican trip with his cousin, Charles Heyn, of Albuquerque, N.M. The daughter, Catherine Colligan, who has been ill since Thanksgiving time, resumed her work this week at UCLA where she is a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Fun to Make, Wonderful to Eat!

HOW LONG has it been since you have had the fun of making a delicious homemade bread such as fruited stollen? If you haven't tried it lately, you're missing one of the most satisfactory of culinary experiences. It is easy to do, takes surprisingly little time. And, when you serve the stollen with plenty of fresh, fragrant coffee, you'll find you have a combination worth remembering for a long time.

'Two Blind Mice' Held Over Again

Held over into the fourth week at the Pasadena Playhouse is the much laughed about Broadway hit, "Two Blind Mice." Sunday night, Feb. 12, is the date now set for the final curtain on this humorous satire on Washington bureaucracy.

Only an assist from the Air Force keeps Uncle Sam from coming out second best in the "Battle of the Bureau" when two old lady bureaucrats continue operation of their agency for four and one-half years after Congress abolished it.

CALIF. HOBBY SHOW PLANNED AT SHRINE

Designed to interest thousands of youngsters and oldsters in new hobbies, the Second Annual California Hobby Show has been scheduled for March 24 through April 2.

It will be conducted at the Shrine Convention Hall, Los Angeles, with what has been acclaimed as the greatest array of unusual amateur hobbies ever displayed under one roof.

Awards of merit will be made in all classifications. Deadline for entries is Feb. 28.

Gophers to 'Burrow' At Sycamore Grove

Gophers and friends of the state of Minnesota will "burrow" at Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, when the Minnesota State Society presents its mid-winter picnic Saturday, Feb. 18.

Badges, coffee, and an entertaining program are planned for the occasion by Society President Otto Gerth.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY FAIR TO FOLLOW ARABIAN PATTERN

Camera enthusiasts will find plenty of unusual and interesting subjects at the coming 1950 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival being staged at the Indio Fairgrounds Feb. 17 to 22, inclusive.

Highlights and background for an amateur's camera lens will be the exhibits and colorful, Arabian-designed fairground architecture and decorations.

Hundreds of Coachella Valley people plan to wear costumes in keeping with the Arabian Nights theme of the fair and festival. A costumed street parade has been scheduled for 10:30 a. m., Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22.

BUDDHIST, HINDU ART DISPLAY DUE

An array of Buddhist and Hindu works of art, spanning more than 4000 years of Far Eastern history is arriving, soon at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park from major collections of two continents.

Countries represented in the exhibition, which opens March 2, will be India, Pakistan, Siam, Malaya, Ceylon, Java, Afghanistan, and French Indo China. The period covered by the art pieces is from 2500 BC to the 18th century AD.

The "Art of Greater India" display will occupy three main floor galleries, and will be on view through April 16.

DESERT WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hopper with their son, David were in Palm Springs and Desert Springs for the weekend. They report the desert is wonderful now and they enjoy returning to Palm Springs to observe the phenomenal growth of the area.

Famous Picture Book Displayed at Library

"The great good fortune of the ages has dawned upon us today!" Thus, a publisher's blurb of 457 years ago announcing the appearance of a new pictorial history of the world from the creation to the year 1493.

The blurb was not far wrong, according to officials of the Huntington Library, where the volume is now on exhibit. It is one of the most famous picture books in the history of printing.

Known as the "Nuremberg Chronicle," it is a large volume with more than 1800 woodcut illustrations. As Anton Koberger, its printer promised, the volume is warranted "to increase and heighten the delight of men of learning, and of everyone who has any education at all."

Today it's doubly risky to drive without insurance. Most states have the new type financial responsibility law. If you have an accident and can't post security up to $11,000—you may lose your right to drive! To say nothing of paying costly damages which may cost your home—savings—security!

Your cheapest, surest protection is State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance. It's proof of your financial responsibility. Let us show you why it pays to insure with State Farm.

SHROVE TUESDAY BREAKFAST ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Pulling's annual Shrove Tuesday pancake breakfast and luncheon will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse this year, Tuesday, February 21st. It will be given by the Daughters of the British Empire for the benefit of the British Old Peoples' Home.

SUNDAY AT O'BANIONS'

Capt. and Mrs. A. E. O'Banion of 337 Camillo, last Sunday entertained Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Taylor of Wilmar, and Mrs. O'Banion's sister, Mrs. Laura Scott of Los Angeles.

BEACH VISITORS

Guests last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Maggie Gibson of 89 N. Lima, were her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Myles Privett and family of Seal Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. James Edward of Balboa Island.

FIRE FLAMES

As we go from place to place we run across that old open gas fire problem. It would be wonderful if all gas stoves could be ventilated by the addition of a flue or vent. There is a distinctive odor about some stoves that surely is not pleasant and certainly cannot be healthy or safe.

If there is any doubt about a stove functioning correctly, the owner should immediately get in touch with the company that furnishes the gas and have them look it over. Many times gas flames do not have sufficient air and, besides creating an obnoxious odor, much valuable heat is lost. An adjustment is necessary to correct this.

Modern furnaces built in houses are usually of the type that fumes cannot escape into the living quarters and when we meet such a condition, one can immediately appreciate the difference.

It is urgently advised that all heaters be inspected by someone who knows how they should be adjusted. It is also urgently requested that the old type rubber hose attachments be discarded for the permanent metal connection. Proper shut-offs are a safety requirement.

We are hoping that the use of gasoline and oil stoves for heating and cooking purposes has been discontinued in Sierra Madre, especially the portable type.

If not, let's be certain that the type is a good one. Be sure that it is set level. Keep it clean and free from dirt at all times. Never place it near curtains, etc., never where it is likely to be knocked over. Never carry or fill a heater while it is lighted.

There are so many "DONT'S" about the things that really the danger involved makes them just about out of the picture, when there are so many permanent installations available.

A group of the boys gathered down at the hall, they pulled out the truck for a drill. So they traveled along at a pretty good clip and suddenly stopped at a plug. Mercer Duff

Strange Facts About Polio

New Staff Named For Explorers

Sierra Madre Explorer Post 108, BSA, has been revamped as to leadership and adult supervision, according to R. W. Lees, District Committeeman.

Mr. Lees announced that Harry G. Caskey, active in local Boy Scout work for many years, has accepted the position of Adult Adviser for the post. Mr. Caskey resigns from the Scout Committee of Troop wrapped the hose 'round the plug without slip—but he felt that he smelled a bad bug.

He waited for some to yell "TURN 'ER ON!" but instead he had help from the boys.

There are many things about the rainy cold season that create fire hazards. Most dwelling fires occur in the cold weather. Naturally, overheated stoves can be dangerous. Open fires in fireplaces can throw off sparks to flimsy curtains and into the apparel of bystanders.

Anyway, let's keep remembering that if we want to keep our fire loss down, we must keep our fire consciousness up. And then after two or three appliances they got the FIRES OUT.

Guild Makes Plans

The 1950 schedule for St. Catherine's Guild of the Episcopal Church, was planned Tuesday noon, Feb. 7, when 26 members met for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lyle Anderson of 695 W. Orange Grove.

Funds from the luncheon are for the church benefit.

Been somewhere? Call the NEWS.

1 to take up these new duties.

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club has been and will continue as sponsoring institution of the Explorer Post, and the unit's annual charter renewal became effective Feb. 1.

Kiwanian Henry L. Nelson has been named institutional representative for the post, and Al Foxton will serve as Post Committee chairman.

Loren "Hap" Heasley and David Tarr will be assistant Post Advisors. Mr. Lees said the following men have said they will serve as Post Committeemen: R. Patterson, L. Shepherd, F. Lockhart, Bill Newbery, and C. Pesek.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Post, Jim Carlson was elected Post Guide, and the following other officers were elected: George Carlson, assistant post guide; Dan Debellis, secretary; Grant Raddon, treasurer; and Wesley Shipway, quartermaster.

Business letterheads are a specialty at the Sierra Madre News.

MENTAL STIMULUS

Insanity Tipplers: According to figures compiled by the United States Census Bureau, drink-caused insanity has reached an all-time high mark.

4547 alcoholics were sent to institutions in 1932 (last complete year of Prohibition).

In 1946 (the last year for which statistics were compiled) 15,254 were sent to the same institutions, an increase of over 330%.

Statistics also show Drinkers are cracking up mentally at earlier ages, between 35 and 39 now as compared with 40 to 44 and even 49, earlier.
